WRITING THE NEXT CHAPTER FOR THE ANNVILLE FREE LIBRARY

We are excited about progress towards our goal to expand the library to meet the changing and growing needs of our community. On behalf of everyone working on this project we all thank you for your financial support helping make it happen. Ground breaking is eagerly anticipated sometime late spring or early summer next year. Several critical activities are complete and we have good news to share with you:

-  The Historical Architectural Review Board (HARB) and the Annville Township Commissioners have approved the Certificate of Appropriateness.
-  Our Land Development Plan is also approved by the Annville Township Planning Commission and the Annville Township Commissioners approved those plans at their November 3rd meeting.
-  We submitted our application for a $750,000 Keystone Grant from the PA Department of Education to help fund the construction of the new addition. We will find out in early March if a grant is awarded us. Annville Township is acting as our municipal sponsor for this grant.

We continue to receive great encouragement and support from everyone we talk to. Stop by the library to see displays showing the latest artist renditions, elevations and floor plans. The staff would be happy to answer any questions. You can also walk through the floor plan marked on the ground in the yard to experience the addition between the existing library and the neighboring duplex. Don't forget to check out our web site: <https://writingthenextchapter.org/>

Your help as champions for this project is invaluable. Spread the word as we Write the Next Chapter in the history of the Annville Free Library.

Thank you,

The AFL Development Team
